FRIDAY 3 OCTOBER DELHI (B/D)

Begin your day with a serene, private yoga session guided by an experienced Indian Yoga Teacher , setting a mindful tone for the day. After breakfast, embark on an unhurried tour of New Delhi, visiting timeless treasures like the UNESCO-listed Qutub Minar and Humayun's Tomb. Marvel at the stately India Gate, the President's House, and Connaught Place, a relic of British colonial elegance. The afternoon is yours to enjoy and experience what the hotel has to offer.

In the early evening, prepare for a meaningful visit to Bangla Sahib Gurudwara. Here, you will witness the heartwarming sight of devotees serving free meals to tens of thousands daily in a display of compassion and community spirit. As you stroll through this sacred space, feel the serene atmosphere envelop you as you observe prayers being offered by both Sikhs and Hindus. A donation will be made on behalf of our group to support the ongoing efforts of the Gurudwara, reflecting our shared commitment to service and unity.

Following dinner at the hotel, our guide will then escort us to visit a high end resto bar called Chicca, close to the hotel in the upmarket diplomatic area of Chanakyapuri. Enjoy the music and the vibrant Delhi nightlife.
